

HIV PREVENTION TODAY

Relationship Building & Whole-Person Care

Primary HIV Prevention

reduces risk of becoming HIV positive

- Test high risk individuals
- Offer pre-exposure Prophylaxis (PrEP), a daily pill to keep HIV negative people from becoming infected.

Secondary HIV Prevention

reduces risk of infecting others

- Ensure people living with HIV receive needed housing and other social services.
- Provide medication and adherence support to reduce viral load.